Ms. Ortega,

My name is Corey Volmering, and I am the attorney representing Mr. Marsh in the above-described matter. Attached to this letter is my appearance and proof of service.

Mr. Marsh has received your letter, dated August 23, 2022. Regarding the letter's content, Mr. Marsh is, and has been, compliant with the last Order (dated 11-04-2021). My client will follow the holiday Parenting Time schedule as ordered in the Judgment of Divorce.

Your client is entitled to the children's counselors, medical and dental providers, and educational information, in addition to attending various extra-curricular events outside of her Parenting Time. Mr. Marsh has uploaded the necessary appointments and provider information in Our Family Wizard, pursuant to the last order.

Mr. Marsh does not intend to limit your client's access to the children; however, reasonable and liberal communication with the minor children during the other parent's Parenting Time was not ordered. While communication with the children during his Parenting Time can be expected, your client should not expect "liberal" communication.

Furthermore, the 11-04-2021 Order required your client to complete the remaining 3 family counseling sessions (as of 10-14-2021) and her Parenting Time would resume provided there were no objections from the children's counselor. My client has not received confirmation that those sessions were completed, nor the counselors' approval for the change. Are you able to provide me that documentation to my email within the next 21 days?

If you need anything further regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Thank you,
Corey Volmering, Attorney
